

NATHAN DOYLE

Data Scientist

Currently working as a Data Scientist on the Data Analytics team in the Department of Agriculture, Food and the Marine. The data analytics team provide a unified view of data to provide an improved understanding of the DAFM herd population. We provide analysis in order to better target services to customers and to inform policy decisions up to the EU level.

My educational background is in computing, mathematics and statistics.

In my free time I enjoy playing card games, particularly contract bridge. I am a former member of Ireland's Junior Bridge Team with 18 international caps.
